

Jean-Michel Lespinasse

Chief Executive Officer, Swixx Biopharma

Jean-Michel Lespinasse is the CEO of Swixx Biopharma, a leading pharmaceutical agent specializing in Rare Diseases, Oncology, Hematology, Vaccines, and Specialty Pharmaceuticals. Since the company's inception in 2015, Jean-Michel has grown Swixx into an organization of over 1,500 employees and 1,1 Billion Euros net sales, with a presence spanning from Central and Eastern Europe, to CIS, and Middle East. Under his leadership, in June 2024, Swixx successfully acquired Biopas in Latin America, further expanding its global footprint.

Before joining Swixx, Jean-Michel served as COO of A&D Pharma, here he managed and developed the sales and marketing divisions across Central and Eastern Europe. He also held the role of COO at Delta Medical in Switzerland. Earlier in his career, Jean-Michel spent 15 years with Bristol-Myers Squibb, holding various roles in finance and general management, including General Manager for Russia, Ukraine, and the CIS region.

Jean-Michel holds a master's degree in Economics and Management from the University of Toulouse, with a specialization in Finance and Management (D.E.S.S.).
