

Florian A. Strassberger

Managing Director, Global Head of International Banks (Growth Markets), Structured Finance

- Florian A. Strassberger is a Managing Director and Global Head of International Banks (Growth Markets) at DZ BANK AG, responsible for the management of international representative offices. In his current role at DZ BANK AG since 2012, Florian has played a crucial role in enhancing global banking relations and expanding market reach in growth markets.
 - Prior to his current role, Florian served as General Manager of the New York Branch and Head of North America from 2008 to 2012, where he was responsible for market development in structured finance and treasury activities. This involved strategic initiatives to boost DZ BANK's presence and competitive stance in North American markets.
 - Florian held various management positions at DZ BANK AG in Frankfurt from 1998 to 2008, including Chief of Staff, where he oversaw Investor Relations, Corporate Governance, and Strategy Development. His leadership contributed significantly to aligning organizational objectives with broader market dynamics.
 - Between 1992 and 1998, Florian led the project "Competitiveness of Nations" at the German Institute for Economic Research (DIW) in Berlin, Germany, where he focused on economic competitiveness and related studies.
 - His early career included roles in Economic Research at Morgan Stanley in New York, USA, and London, UK, from 1990 to 1992, providing a foundation in international finance and economic analysis.
 - Florian holds a Dr. rer. pol. in Economics from Free University Berlin (FU Berlin), Germany, earned in 1999, and a Master's Degree in Economics from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC), USA, completed in 1990.
-