

Pierre Jacquet

Vice Chairman, Global Healthcare Managing Director, L.E.K Consulting

Pierre Jacquet is Vice Chairman, Global Healthcare Managing Director of L.E.K. Consulting. He has served in a variety of leadership roles for L.E.K., including the firm's Global Leadership Team, the Americas Management Committee, and various partner operating committees since 2001. Dr. Jacquet has spent more than two decades focused on corporate strategy consulting, merger and acquisition advisory services, and value management, both domestically and internationally. A former physician, he worked with Genzyme in business development for Genzyme. During his medical career, he was a Fellow at the Washington Cancer Institute from 1993 to 1996, where he authored over 30 publications and presentations. Dr. Jacquet is a Director of Neurvati, a Blackstone company and Mereo Biopharma (Nasdaq: MREO). He previously served as a Director of Exact Sciences (Nasdaq: EXAS) and Osprey Pharmaceuticals. Dr. Jacquet earned a Master of Business Administration from the Darden Graduate School at the University of Virginia, was awarded a Doctor of Medicine with high distinction, and a Doctor of Philosophy in biomedical sciences from the University of Liège in Belgium.